THE REPUBLICAN.

PLYMOUTH, IND.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1864.

A Democrat on Resistance.

We copy the following article from the St. Wayne Sentinel, a staunch Democrat sheet, for two reasons; first, to show that even at St. Wayne, that stronghold of Copperheadism, where only a few days since, at a Copperhead Mass Meeting, said to have been largely attended, resolutions counselling resistance to the draft were adopted, wiser and cooler heads, belonging to the party, counsel a different course; and, secondly, to call to the attention of those bloody-minded fanatics in this place and vicinity who have commenced organizing military companies for the purpose of resisting the draft and preventing Union men from voting, well knowing that if they persist in such unlawful proceeding it cannot fail to lead to trouble and bloodshed.

"The Times of last night contains an ill-judged and mischievous article on the draft making it fill our quota by raising volunteers, and denouncing Democrats who took part in the meeting for that purpose. His censures of the Democrats are unjust and uncalled for; we consider all who aid us to escape the draft are entitled to praise rather than censure.

However obnoxious the conscription may be, and however much we may be opposed to the war as now conducted, we must as law-abiding citizens submit to the law, and if our quota can be filled by volunteers, it is certainly better to do it any cost, rather than have our citizens torn from their families by a remorseless draft.

"The assumption that there will be no draft, we much fear, will prove false,— those who believe it will find, when too late, their mistake—and any counsel to resist it by force can only lead to trouble and bloodshed. We are in favor of peace, and utterly opposed to any thing calculated to lead to civil war, or bring rapine and bloodshed to our doors. Such counrels are dangerous and mischievous, and we warn all against being led into danger and difficulty by listening to them.

"We have no intention of making any laughed reply to the Times' article. Our only object is to warn the people of its evil tendency, and to disclaim its teachings as being Democratic doctrine. In writing the article, Mr. Dawson only expresses his own views, not those of the Democratic party; and on behalf of that party we utterly repudiate and denounce them as dangerous to the peace of the community, and calculated to incite the Democratic cause and lessen its chance of success in the approaching election."

The Indianapolis Journal says the military authorities, for prudential reasons, have refused to allow all of the papers

Dear Sir—Your letter, with one en-parties wish to buy them, the best way would be for them to purchase some one in New York appointed to purchase them

I am satisfied that it is the very article
